WHY CHOOSE BIRMINGHAM CITY UNIVERSITY?

If you are considering Birmingham, UK, as your study destination, you are sure to feel at home here. A diverse city, Birmingham is home to more Muslims than the UK average, with over 20% of Birmingham residents identifying as Muslim. In terms of nationality profile, as of 2011 there were over 5,000 migrants from the Middle East and North Africa living in the city.

Mosques

Birmingham is home to over 150 mosques, with Birmingham Central Mosque being one of the most recognised religious buildings in Birmingham. Two Birmingham mosques have even been named among the first winners in the Beacon Mosque Standards – a new global awards scheme that recognises excellent practices and establishes global standards for Muslim places of worship.

Mosques in the city centre:

- Birmingham Central Mosque (186 Belgrave Middleway)
- Central Jamia Mosque Ghamkol Sharif (150 Golden Hillock Road)
- Jami Masjid & Islamic Centre (505 - 527 Coventry Road)
- Masjid Umbar (98 Walford Road)
- Madina Mosque (150 Adderley Road)
- Zia ul Quran Jamia Masjid (218 St. Saviours Road)

Events

Birmingham's Small Heath Park hosts annual Eid celebrations – the largest gathering of its kind in Europe. Over 140,000 Muslims gathered here in 2018 to celebrate as a community. Birmingham also recently introduced a monthly Muslim market, featuring stalls from over 40 Muslim businesses from around the country.

Accommodation

Birmingham City University offers seven halls of residence within walking distance of BCUIIC and the main City Centre Campus, with the closest just three minutes away. Every room option features an en-suite bathroom and many include a double bed.

If you would like to live in an all-male or all-female flat, this can be requested at booking stage.

“The main facility every Muslim student looks for is the faith room and a proper place for Wudhu (ablution), and both are available in Millennium Point and the Curzon B Building.

“Friday prayer is organised every Friday at noon and a huge number of people turn up for this. In the holy month of Ramadan, we also organise Iftar on campus.”
