STUDY MEDIA AT BIRMINGHAM CITY UNIVERSITY (BCU)

If you would like to study a media degree, why not choose Birmingham City University? It's big, modern and located in the vibrant heart of the UK's second city!

3 REASONS TO CHOOSE BCU

- The facilities at Birmingham City School of Media are used by the industry, as well as by students.
- You will have the opportunity to complete at least two industry placements, and previous students have gained experience with the BBC and the NEC – the UK's no. 1 venue for shows and concerts!
- A number of the School's degrees have been accredited by ScreenSkills – the government's skills sector council for audio, visual and creative industries.

INDUSTRY-STANDARD FACILITIES

- Six radio studios and four TV studios featuring the latest Sony equipment.
- One of the largest fixed green screen studios in the UK, featuring a MILO motion control camera.
- All studios are fully soundproofed and have been acoustically designed to provide ideal recording environments for both live and pre-recorded audio production.

STUDENT SUCCESS

Kate Sivak, from Ukraine
Completed Pre-Master's Media at BCUIC
Graduated from MA Global Media Management at BCU

"I chose Birmingham City University because facilities and teaching are focused on helping students become professionals and forging useful connections for their future career.

"I didn't expect BCUIC tutors to be so incredibly supportive – they were always happy to answer all my questions, read every single word of my papers and advise on how to make them better. They are very keen to help, all of them encourage us to ask questions and are happy to find time for one-to-one tutorials to provide individual support.

"I graduated from my Master's with Distinction, and I am currently submitting a proposal for my PhD!"

LECTURERS FROM THE INDUSTRY
