Meet the needs of a changing world

BSc (Hons) Public Health

- Study at our Faculty of Medical Science based at our Chelmsford campus which includes state-of-the-art clinical skills laboratories and simulation suites, which mirror real-life clinical situations.
- Gain close links with the UK's Public Health Association, the Chartered Institute for Environmental Health and other professional bodies.
- Our degree is one of the few courses in the UK to be recognised by the Royal Society for Public Health.
- Taught by research-active staff and regular guest lectures from leading figures such as Chief Executive of the Royal Society for Public health.
- Undertake work placements and develop a portfolio of reflective case studies to show how you have applied what you have learned in real-life settings.
