Financial support

Here at Cambridge Ruskin International College our main aim is to support our students so that you have the best chance of success in your degree study.

For all new SLC funded UK and EU students joining us in September 2018 or January 2019 we have the following financial support:

£400 Books Plus card

Books Plus can be used to purchase books, stationery, laptops, computer consumables and other learning materials from John Smith's bookshops at either the Cambridge or Chelmsford campus, or online at www.johnsmith.co.uk/aru/books-plus-scheme.

Additional financial support is also available through the CRIC Learners Fund. Further information on the application process and eligibility criteria for the CRIC Learners Fund will be provided at enrolment and information will be available on the student portal.

You don't need to apply for the Books Plus card, this will be automatically awarded in instalments to eligible students following enrolment.

Your Books Plus card will be valid for the full duration of the CRIC programme. Any unused credit will expire on completion of the CRIC pathway.
